

Season

From April to end of October.

We recommend you to book this tour 3 or 4 months before the departure date if you plan to walk it in summer time. Great demand and few rooms!

Difficulty: grade 3

No major difficulty, you walk 6 to 8 hours a day. The grade 3 reflects the length of some stages about 25 kilometers and the nature of the terrain. The total altitude gain is about 350 meters a day, some ascents or descents could be steep. This walk requires a reasonable degree of walking experience and a current good state of fitness.

The trail is well marked with red and white GR signs or you walk some small paths along the river usually used by anglers.
