

Season

From April to end of October.

We recommend you to book this tour 3 or 4 months before the departure date if you plan to walk it in summer time. Great demand and few rooms!

Difficulty: grade 2

This tour presents no major difficulty. You walk in an undulating terrain and there are no prolonged ascents or descents and no steep gradients. One stage is 25 km long but is flat. It's easy to follow the path marked with yellow or red and white signs

Itinerary

8-day and 7-night self-guided circular walking holidays

Day 1 : Arrival at SOUILLAC, a small, prosperous town built around a Benedictine abbey on the banks of the Dordogne river. Spend the afternoon visiting the Musée des Automates, and the remarkable abbey with three cupolas on pendentives, fine carved capitals and a statue of the prophet Isaiah, a masterpiece of Romanesque art. Stroll in the old historic city near the abbey - Half-board accommodation in a 2-star hotel

Day 2 : SOUILLAC - CALES (19 km). After crossing the Dordogne river you will walk a angler path running along the river to reach the village of Lanzac. You will make a detour to the Lanzac viewpoint, which overlooks the entire Dordogne valley. From here you will take a charming little route across the western portion of the Causse de Gramat to reach the hamlet of La Bastit, a small village along the Dordogne with a strange castle overlooking the river. You will continue through a forest of scraggly oaks, through tobacco fields and grassy stretches where sheep graze, to arrive finally in Cales - Half-board accommodation in a 2-star hotel

Day 3 : CALES - ROCAMADOUR (18 km). You will walk down to the Pont de l'Ouyse where the Belcastel chateau rises in the distance. You will visit the Grottes de Lacave (1 hour and a half tour) and make your way up the Ouyse valley (a remarkable site in the Lot department), wild and mysterious and spotted with old watermills, including the 13th century fortified watermill of Cougnaguet where everything works as it used to! The subterranean waters of the Gouffre de Cabouy rise above ground here as the source of the Ouyse. You will continue the hike through the Alzou Valley and will arrive in Rocamadour for the night - Lodging and breakfast in a 2-star hotel

Day 4 : ROCAMADOUR – ST SOZY (19 km). This morning will begin with a quiet visit of Rocamadour city. This is the second-most-visited place in France after le Mont Saint Michel. Once a revered site among the Christian community, Rocamadour remains a holy place for many pilgrims, notably those on the path to Santiago de Compostella. Clinging to the cliffs of the Alzou canyon, the medieval village has many interesting facets : vestiges of a former castle and a hospital for pilgrims, Basilica of Saint Sauveur and the pilgrimage chapel of the Black Virgin, narrow old streets lined with beautiful gates and homes dating back to the Middle-Ages. You will leave the city through l'Hospitalet, a village built on the cliffs' edge, and pass through Le Causse and the picturesque villages of Mayrinhac-le-Francal and Bougayrou to arrive in Meyronne, an old cliffside village that looks out over the river, yet sits in the shadow of an old fortified castle. You will cross the river to reach the pleasant village of St Sozy

Half-board accommodation in a 2-star hotel

Day 5 : ST SOZY - CARENNAC (23 km). You will pass over the Dordogne river again to reach and cross the village of Meyronne before walking to another loop of the river. You will pass through the Causse towards the lovely village of Montvalent and the hamlet of Veyssou, and continue to the edge of the cliffs of the Cirque de Montvalent. From this point you will look out over the beautiful panorama of the Dordogne Valley. You will pass through the forests towards the small villages of Veysse, Floirac and Mezels before arriving in the charming village of Carennac.

Half-board accommodation in a 2-star hotel

Day 6 : CARENNAC – PADIRAC (19 km). The village of Carennac has developed from the 11th century onward after a priory was founded by the abbey of Cluny. The village has a number of houses dating back to the Middle-Ages, and a beautiful 12th century Norman church called St Pieter's. Its cloister, half-Romanesque half-Flamboyant-Gothic, shelters a remarkable 16th century entombment. You will leave the village and walk across the Gramat Causse to the charming village of Loubressac with its narrow, flowered streets, ancient houses and its castle. After visiting it you will continue your walk through the Causse to Padirac Gouffre. Here you will be treated to a boat tour that begins 103 meters below ground and takes you along 500 meters of river. Next will come a guided walking tour through the vast cavernous galleries, including the Grand Dome that reaches 94 meters in height! You will exit again into open air to go to the hotel - Half-board accommodation in a 2-star hotel.

Day 7 : PADIRAC – BRETENOUX (16 km). After leaving Padirac, you will walk to a beautiful site : the Cirque d'Autoire. From the top of the cliffs, a spectacular view of the Bave Valley spreads before you. You will walk down to the village of Autoire, nestled in the hollow of the valley lined by impressive cliffs. You will descend towards the Chateau de Castelnau, one of the most beautiful fortified castles in France. and continue your walk to Loubressac, a beautiful village opposite the feudal castle of Castelnau, a very imposing 12th to 15th century fortress and one the finest examples of the military architecture of the Middle-Ages. After having toured the chateau you will continue on to the charming village of Bretenoux, which was built up around the Place des Consuls.

Lodging in breakfast in a B&B (chambre d'hôtes)

Day 8 : BRETENOUX. The tour ends after breakfast.
